Dear [First name],

Thank you so much for your contribution to WSHU. Membership support like yours makes possible the programs you rely on now more than ever. We truly and simply could not do it without you.

Your support puts great art, performances and music within reach of every ear... you help share the stories of the celebrated and the unknown... you inspire the child of today to become the musician or journalist of tomorrow... and you power vital news coverage, both local and national, that's more essential than ever in times like these.

All of this – and so much more – is available to our community because of your continued generosity.

WSHU is always focused on its core public mission to inform, educate and entertain the people of Connecticut and New York. Your contribution is the fuel that makes this unique mission possible and powerful.

There's simply no end to what your support can do! And so, no end to our gratitude....
